10. REPORT RE: Debriefing [redacted] The Meeting at the Oficina

SYNOPSIS:

[redacted] was debriefed on April 7, 1992 by S/A Leyva and G/S Berrellez in regard to his/her knowledge of a fourth meeting held circa November/December, 1984. [redacted] was personally present at this fourth meeting as he/she was at three previous meetings in his/her capacity as a trusted bodyguard.

As in the first three meetings reported by S/A Leyva in debriefings of [redacted] on April 7, 1992, entitled the Las Americas meeting, the Ak-47 meeting, and the 114 Tonalá meeting, this fourth meeting also addressed the planning of the murder of a DEA Special Agent. In this debriefing [redacted] describes a meeting that though brief, was very intense and to the point regarding the murder of a DEA Special Agent.

DETAILS:

1. Reference is made to DEA-6 dated 4/7/92 which reflects a meeting at the 114 Tonalá residence of Javier Barba. Approximately five to seven days later a meeting was held at another residence owned by Javier Barba-Hernandez known as the "Oficina" which is located approximately two streets away from the 114 Tonalá residence.

2. At this residence of Javier Barba Hernandez a meeting was held by Jalisco Governor Enrique Alvarez del Castillo and Miguel Aldana Ibarra (then director of Interpol) with drug lords Rafael Caro-Quintero, Ernesto Fonseca-Carrillo, Javier Barba-Hernandez, Manuel Salcido-Zazueta aka "El Cochi Loco", and Ruben Zuno-Arce. Also present at this meeting were Abelardo Velasquez Fernandez aka "El Ingeniero" the Dormido brothers, and "El Italiano". On the day of that meeting, [redacted] and a group of Jalisco state judicial police accompanied Ernesto Fonseca-Carrillo to the "Oficina" residence of Barba. Upon arrival they met up with Rafael Caro-Quintero, Javier Barba Hernandez, Manuel Salcido Zazueta aka "Cochi Loco", Ruben Zuno Arce, MFJP agent Alfonso Vasquez Velasco, Abelardo Fernandez aka "El Ingeniero" and "El Italiano".

3. [REDACTED] related to debriefing agents after his/her arrival at the "oficina" the then Governor of Jalisco, Enrique Alvarez del Castillo arrived accompanied by Jalisco State Police Comandante Benjamin Locheo. [REDACTED] reported that Alvarez del Castillo entered the living room area where the aforementioned individuals had gathered. [REDACTED] reported that he/she overheard Alvarez del Castillo state in a firm and angry manner, "Que Paso? Que no pueden con el gabacho de la DEA? Si no para mandar yo a mi gente" (Translation: "What's going on? Can't you deal with the American DEA agent? If not, let me know so my people can handle it".) [REDACTED] was standing by the open living room door and Alvarez del Castillo made the above remarks while walking by him/her. [REDACTED] then stated that Ernesto Fonseca replied "we are working on it. We already killed some Americans and we haven't located the right person". [REDACTED] stated that Ruben Zuno-Arce directing his conversation to Alvarez del Castillo said "they are working on it - give them the correct details so they can locate him." Zuno then directed his conversation to Aldana stating, "you too, Aldana, why haven't you provided them with the correct details?" [REDACTED] stated that Aldana replied that he already had some of his people working on it.

4. Providing security for that meeting were; Rene Lopez Romero, Samuel Ramirez Razo, Jorge Godoy, [REDACTED] and a body guard for Javier Barba-Hernandez who [REDACTED] has identified in a photo spread. This meeting terminated with Alvarez del Castillo ordering those present to expedite the abduction of the DEA agent.
